POOLS E and F

Format for Round 2 Games for Pools E and F

At the end of Round 1 all teams who have not progressed to the Top 16 will be re-seeded and allocated to Pools E and F.

Pool E will be made up of the teams finishing 5th in their Pool. They will play for places 17-20.

These are the points system and the tie break procedures that will be used to re-seed all teams and break ties at the end of Pools E and F.

Points System

Every match in each game is important and points will be awarded so that all players are rewarded for their own individual and team efforts.

Points are awarded for every game. Results for Round 1 will be an accumulation of points against all teams in all games in their Pool to decide the Matches and Pools for Round 2.

All Games Singles or Doubles - will be worth 2 points for a win; 1 point for a draw. So every Game in every Round has a potential of 8 points per team.

The Points system will be used in all further Rounds to decide on how a team progresses through the event.

Tie Breaks - to determine seeding in Pools E and F

If at the end of Round 1 there is a tie between teams from different Pools then Match-play points scored in Doubles will be used. If still a tie then scores in Match play points scored in Singles will be used. If still a tie then a play off will be held. For Round 1 and seeding of Pools E and F this will be between MPOI players starting on hole 1 of Course B.

If a 3-way or more tie on points after Round 1 between teams from different pools then the same process will be used to seed teams for Round 2.

Tie Breaks - to determine final positions at the end of play in Pools E and F

If there is a 2-way tie after the end of Pools E and F then the head to head result will count first. If that is tied then Match-play points scored in Doubles will be used. If still a tie then scores in Match play points scored in Singles will be used. If still a tie then a play off will be held. This will be between FPOI players starting at Hole 1 on Course B and will be sudden life.

If there is a 3-way or more tie on points at the end of Pools E and F then points in games played by those three or more teams will be calculated. If there is a clear 1st, 2nd, 3rd etc in the group then those results stand. If after points in games between those 3 or more teams there are 2 teams tied then the Head to Head result will count first.
